

TOP TRUCK: Scania R730 Truck of the Show.

Awards reflect quality venue

FOUR companies were recognised with show awards at the 2011 Brisbane Truck Show cocktail party hosted by show ambassador, rugby league great Shane Webcke.

Commercial Vehicle Industry Association of Queensland president Bob Martin presented the awards with show partners BP, BOQ and Maha.

The 2011 Brisbane Truck Show Awards consist of five major categories with winners as follows:

Risk Management Excellence, presented by Worklaw Health and Safety, awarded to O'Phee Trailers.

Outstanding Vehicle Component and Equipment Display, presented by Maha, awarded to Jost Australia.

Outstanding Trailer/Truck Body Manufacturer Display, presented by BOQ, awarded to O'Phee Trailers.

Outstanding Truck Manufacturer Display, presented by BP Australia, awarded to Iveco Trucks Australia.

Truck of the Show, presented by CVIAQ, awarded to Scania R730.

The judges commented that the quality of exhibits at this year's show was exceptional. Special commendations were awarded to:

Mack Truck Australia: Outstanding Truck Manufacturer Display

Cummins, ZF, Meritor: Outstanding Vehicle Component and Equipment Display

Hendrickson: Risk Management Excellence.

WINNER: O'Phee Trailers won two awards.